

PROGRAMS OF THE "INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMA IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DIPLOMACY" OF THE WORLD ORGANIZATION OF AMBASSADORS (LATAM - Global, in Spanish, English and Italian languages)

*History and development of the World Organization of Ambassadors (WOA - OME)

• Multilateral diplomacy and conflict resolution • International negotiation and mediation • Economic and commercial diplomacy • Writing and presentation of diplomatic documents • Diplomatic ceremony and protocol • International security and defense • International Human Rights Law (of Migrations and Humanitarian) • Climate change and environment • Bilateral and regional relations • Communication and international marketing.

A. INTERNATIONAL LAW ON MIGRATION AND GLOBAL HUMAN MOBILITY I.

CONTENTS I.

Introduction to international migration • Definitions and basic concepts

- Evolution and current trends of international migrations
- The impact of international migrations in the countries of origin, transit and destination
- Main challenges and opportunities for international migration law.

II.

Regulatory framework of international migration law

- International Convention on the protection of the rights of all migrant workers and their families.
- Convention on the Status of Refugees and its Protocol
- Convention on the elimination of all forms of racial discrimination.
- Other relevant international instruments.

III. Human rights of migrants

* Human rights of migrants in the framework of international law. Equality and non-discrimination

- Right to work and social security
- Right to education, health and housing. IV. International refugee protection

* Concept and definition of refugee

- Procedures for recognition of refugee status
- Protection and assistance to refugees
- Return and voluntary repatriation. V. Irregular migration and the fight against human trafficking

• Concept and definition of irregular migration • Protection of the human rights of irregular migrants

* Human trafficking and labor exploitation

- Actions and policies to combat human trafficking. SAW. conclusions
- Synthesis of the main issues addressed • Challenges and prospects for international migration law.

PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW, REGULATORY FRAMEWORK AND PRACTICAL APPROACH UNITS:

UNIT 1.

Introduction to International Law. Difference between Private and Public International Law. History and evolution of private international law. Concept. Fundamentals and Importance.

UNIT 2. Sources of Private International Law. The National Constitution as a source of DIPr. The DIPr from an internal source: Title IV, Book VI of the Civil and Commercial Code, Mediate Source Art. 1 and Immediate Source Art. 2594 CCCN.

UNIT 3. Private International Law from a Conventional source. Treaties of Montevideo of 1889/90 and 1940. Code of Bustamante. Universal Forums: the United Nations organization (UN) and The Hague. OAS Work: Inter-American DIPr Conventions. (CIDIPs). Mercosur as a Source of DIPr, International Documents. Bilateral agreements. The Lex Mercatoria.

UNIT 4. International regime of natural persons. International regime of marriage and its dissolution. International regime of filiation, integrity and protection. Adoption of minors. international aid.

UNIT 5. International regime of public and private legal entities. Civil and commercial. International property regime. International regime of intangible property.

UNIT 6. Universal processes. International regime of succession transmission. International regime of bankruptcy liquidation.

UNIT 7. International Criminal Law and International Criminal Procedure.

UNIT 8. International Tax Law.

PUBLIC DIPLOMACY AND GEOSTRUCTURAL POWER DEVELOPMENT

Module 1: History of Public Diplomacy. Milestones of "modern" Public Diplomacy.

Module 2:

Practical concepts of Public Diplomacy. Socio anthropological approach to Public Diplomacy. Psycho-inductive approach (manipulation) in and of Public Diplomacy.

Module 3: Development of schemes of real power under and with the tools of Public Diplomacy. Future of Public Diplomacy.

Module 4: Model of Public Diplomacy within the World Organization of Ambassadors.

Development Program 2023 - 2028 based on Public Diplomacy within the World Organization of Ambassadors.

ETHICS AND BIOETHICS

modules Introduction to Bioethics and Bioethics committees.

History and its evolution.

The particular problems of Ethics and Bioethics.

Division of problems through norm and religion.

Ethics and methodology, research against the law, its ethical problems and its consequences.

4- The theories and methods of Ethics, from its origins to the present.

5- Theoretical foundations of bioethics and its field of investigation.

6-Ethics and Bioethics today.

FOUNDATIONS AND INTRODUCTION OF FOREIGN TRADE AND CEREMONIAL AND INTERNATIONAL PROTOCOL

CONTACTS: EMAIL: worldambassadorsorganization@gmail.com

WhatsApp: + 549 11 40477187

Wisdom Gombe University R.C. 1385975.

WOA OME Leg. 248769 Argentina.

WOA OME Europe C.F. 94186190545.

The Dominican Hague OO5239373767563