

PROGRAMS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMA OF THE WORLD
AMBASSADORS' ORGANIZATION (WOA)

A. DIPLOMA IN INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION LAW

Course Description: This course is designed to provide students with an in-depth understanding of the legal frameworks governing international migration. The course will examine the various international instruments and national laws that regulate migration, as well as the institutions and agencies responsible for implementing these laws.

Course Objectives: Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Understand the legal frameworks governing international migration
2. Analyze the various international instruments and national laws that regulate migration
3. Critically assess the role of institutions and agencies responsible for implementing migration laws
4. Develop a nuanced understanding of the challenges and opportunities presented by migration
5. Formulate strategies for promoting the rights of migrants and ensuring their protection under the law

Course Outline:

Module 1: Introduction to International Migration Law

- Definition of international migration law
- Historical background and evolution of international migration law
- Key concepts and principles of international migration law

Module 2: International Instruments on Migration

- United Nations conventions and protocols on migration
- Other international instruments on migration
- Analysis of international instruments on migration

Module 3: National Laws on Migration

- Comparative analysis of national laws on migration
- Types of national laws on migration
- Challenges and opportunities presented by national laws on migration

Module 4: Institutions and Agencies Responsible for Implementing Migration Laws

- Analysis of international organizations responsible for implementing migration laws
- Analysis of national agencies responsible for implementing migration laws
- Challenges and opportunities presented by institutions and agencies responsible for implementing migration laws

Module 5: Protection of Migrants

- Analysis of the protection of migrants under international law
- Challenges and opportunities presented by the protection of migrants
- Strategies for promoting the rights of migrants and ensuring their protection under the law

Module 6: Contemporary Issues in Migration Law

- Analysis of contemporary issues in migration law
- Challenges and opportunities presented by contemporary issues in migration law
- Strategies for addressing contemporary issues in migration law

Assessment: Assessment will be based on the following:

- Written assignments
- Case studies
- Participation in online discussions
- Final exam

Grading: Grades will be based on the following:

- Written assignments: 40%
- Case studies: 20%
- Participation in online discussions: 20%
- Final exam: 20%

II. BIBLIOGRAPHY

II. BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE PROFESSORSHIP PABLO BANCHIO (open source)

"Argumentary bases for the justification of the human right «not to emigrate»".

(September 9, 2021). <http://dx.doi.org/10.2139/ssrn.3991260>

a) International Political Economy: Migration eJournal. Vol 10, Issue 4, January 11, 2022

b) International Institutions: Transnational Networks eJournal. Vol 9, Issue 4, January 11, 2022

"Dikelogical dimension of the human right «not to emigrate»" (November 25, 2020). <http://dx.doi.org/10.2139/ssrn.3737505>.

a) International Political Economy: Migration eJournal, Vol 9, Issue 7, February 08, 2021.

b) Immigration, Refugee & Citizenship Law eJournal, Vol 22, Issue 8, February 16, 2021.

c) International Institutions: Transnational Networks eJournal, February 22, 2021.

"First approaches to human right «not to emigrate»" (May 5, 2020). Available at: <http://dx.doi.org/10.2139/ssrn.3594479>

a) International Institutions: Transnational Networks eJournal, Vol 7, Issue 38, July 29, 2020.

b) Immigration, Refugee & Citizenship Law eJournal, vol. 21, no. 52: jul 31, 2020.

c) Public International Law: Human Rights eJournal, Vol. 7, No. 85: Aug 5, 2020. Alan Sykes, Editor, Professor of Law, Stanford University - Law School.

d) European Public Law: Eu eJournal, Vol. 17, No. 72: Aug 6, 2020. John S. Bell, Editor, Professor of Law, University of Cambridge - Faculty of Law.

e) Law & Society: International & Comparative Law eJournal. Sponsored by: Indiana University Maurer School of Law, Vol. 15, No. 134: Aug 6, 2020.

"Refugee and forced migrant crisis: a European problem" (February 9, 2021). <https://dx.doi.org/10.2139/ssrn.3782834>

a) European Public Law: EU eJournal, Vol 18, Issue 32, April 06, 2021.

b) Immigration, Refugee & Citizenship Law eJournal, Vol 22, Issue 21, April 06, 2021.

c) International Political Economy: Migration eJournal, Vol 9, Issue 19, March 22, 2021.

"Sociological Dimension of the Human Right 'Not to Emigrate'" (August 14, 2020). <http://dx.doi.org/10.2139/ssrn.3675056>

a) Immigration, Refugee & Citizenship Law eJournal, Vol 21, Issue 69, October 13, 2020.

b) Law & Society: International & Comparative Law eJournal, Indiana University Maurer School of Law, Vol 15, Issue 174, October 14, 2020.

c) International Political Economy: Migration eJournal, Vol 8, Issue 53, October 13, 2020.

"The European Union's double standard in receiving refugees and migrants".

a) Scientific and Analytical Journal "IR Scientists' Herald" (ВЕСТНИК УЧЁНЫХ-МЕЖДУНАРОДНИКОВ), 2022. № 1 (19), pp. 190-217.

b. También en: <https://www.researchgate.net/publication/359614569>

http://www.vestnikum.ru/documents/31/Вестник_СМУ_ДА_119_2022_П_1_1.pdf

III. GENERAL BIBLIOGRAPHY (open source)

1. World Health Organization (WHO): <https://www.who.int/>
 2. United Nations (UN): <https://www.un.org/>
 3. European Union (EU): <https://europa.eu/>
 4. International Monetary Fund (IMF): <https://www.imf.org/en/Home>
 5. World Bank: <https://www.worldbank.org/>
 6. United Nations Development Programme (UNDP):
<https://www.undp.org/>
 7. International Labour Organization (ILO): <https://www.ilo.org/>
 8. United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF): <https://www.unicef.org/>
 9. Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO):
<http://www.fao.org/home/en/>
 10. United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO): <https://en.unesco.org/>
- World Health Organization (WHO). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.who.int/>
 - United Nations (UN). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.un.org/>
 - European Union (EU). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://europa.eu/>
 - International Monetary Fund (IMF). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.imf.org/en/Home>
 - World Bank. (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.worldbank.org/>
 - United Nations Development Programme (UNDP). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.undp.org/>
 - International Labour Organization (ILO). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.ilo.org/>
 - United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://www.unicef.org/>
 - Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <http://www.fao.org/home/en/>

- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). (n.d.). Home page. Retrieved from <https://en.unesco.org/>

B. INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW:

Course Description: This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the legal frameworks governing armed conflict and humanitarian action. The course will examine the principles of international humanitarian law and their application in various contexts, as well as the legal and ethical issues surrounding humanitarian action.

Course Objectives: Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Understand the principles of international humanitarian law and their application in armed conflict
2. Analyze the legal and ethical issues surrounding humanitarian action
3. Critically assess the role of institutions and agencies responsible for implementing international humanitarian law
4. Develop a nuanced understanding of the challenges and opportunities presented by humanitarian action in different contexts
5. Formulate strategies for promoting compliance with international humanitarian law and ensuring the protection of civilians in armed conflict

Course Outline:

Module 1: Introduction to International Humanitarian Law

- Definition of international humanitarian law
- Historical background and evolution of international humanitarian law
- Key concepts and principles of international humanitarian law

Module 2: International Instruments on International Humanitarian Law

- Geneva Conventions and Additional Protocols
- Other international instruments on international humanitarian law
- Analysis of international instruments on international humanitarian law

Module 3: International Humanitarian Law in Practice

- Application of international humanitarian law in different contexts
- International humanitarian law and human rights law
- Contemporary challenges to international humanitarian law

Module 4: Humanitarian Action and International Humanitarian Law

- Legal and ethical issues surrounding humanitarian action
- Analysis of international organizations responsible for implementing international humanitarian law
- Challenges and opportunities presented by humanitarian action in different contexts

Module 5: Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict

- Analysis of the protection of civilians under international humanitarian law
- Strategies for promoting compliance with international humanitarian law and ensuring the protection of civilians in armed conflict
- Challenges and opportunities presented by the protection of civilians in armed conflict

Module 6: Contemporary Issues in International Humanitarian Law

- Analysis of contemporary issues in international humanitarian law
- Challenges and opportunities presented by contemporary issues in international humanitarian law
- Strategies for addressing contemporary issues in international humanitarian law

Assessment: Assessment will be based on the following:

- Written assignments
- Case studies
- Participation in online discussions
- Final exam

Grading: Grades will be based on the following:

- Written assignments: 40%
- Case studies: 20%
- Participation in online discussions: 20%
- Final exam: 20%

BIBLIOGRAPHY

1. International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC):
<https://www.icrc.org/en/what-we-do/international-humanitarian-law>

2. International Humanitarian Law Clinic at Harvard Law School:
<https://ihlclinic.law.harvard.edu/resources/>
3. International Humanitarian Law Research Initiative (IHLRI):
<https://www.ihlri.org/resources>
4. United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law:
<https://legal.un.org/avl/ls/IHL.html>
5. Humanitarian Law & Policy Blog: <https://blogs.icrc.org/law-and-policy/>
6. International Review of the Red Cross:
<https://www.icrc.org/en/international-review-red-cross>
7. International Criminal Court (ICC) - Legal Tools Database:
<https://www.legal-tools.org/en/home>
8. Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights:
<https://www.geneva-academy.ch/resources/publications-and-tools>
9. Oxford Bibliographies - International Humanitarian Law:
<https://www.oxfordbibliographies.com/view/document/obo-9780199796953/obo-9780199796953-0075.xml>
10. ICRC Customary International Humanitarian Law Database: <https://ihl-databases.icrc.org/customary-ihl/Introduction>
 - International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC). (n.d.). What we do: International humanitarian law. Retrieved from <https://www.icrc.org/en/what-we-do/international-humanitarian-law>
 - International Humanitarian Law Clinic at Harvard Law School. (n.d.). Resources. Retrieved from <https://ihlclinic.law.harvard.edu/resources/>
 - International Humanitarian Law Research Initiative (IHLRI). (n.d.). Resources.